Dear Editor,

We would be very grateful if you could publish corrections considering the paper Volatile constituents of selected Parmeliaceae lichens, by I. Ž. Stojanović, N. S. Radulović, T. Lj. Mitrović, S. M. Stamenković, G. S. Stojanović, published in J. Serb. Chem. Soc. 76 (2011) 987.

The original article was published with the incorrect names of the two identified compounds due to the authors' oversight. Although after a long time, the authors apologize to the editor and readers.

The corrections are as follows:

In the Abstract, page 987 line 8:

Incorrect: olivetonide; correct: 3-hydroxy olivetonide

In the Table I, page 992:

- Incorrect: 6,8-Dihydroxy-3-pentylisochromen-1-one;
correct: 6,7,8-Trihydroxy-3-pentylisochromen-1-one
- Incorrect: 2,4-Dihydroxy-6-(2-oxoheptyl)benzoic acid;
correct: 6,8-Dihydroxy-3-pentylisochromen-1-one
- Incorrect: olivetonide; correct: 3-hydroxy olivetonide
- Incorrect: olivetonic acid; correct: olivetonide

- Incorrect: olivetonide; correct: 3-hydroxy olivetonide
- Incorrect: olivetonic acid; correct: olivetonide

Incorrect: olivetonide; correct 3-hidroksiolivetonid

Once again, on behalf of all authors, my apologies.

Gordana Stojanović
